

Daniel A. Meneley (born Maple Creek, Saskatchewan, 1935)

Engineer Emeritus, Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd., Mississauga, ON. BE University of Saskatchewan 1958. Sask. Land Surveyor, 1959. PhD University of London 1963. Physicist, ANL 1963-72, fast reactor physics & safety. Manager, Nuclear Studies & Safety Department, Ontario Hydro, 1972-80. Nuclear Group Manager, Ontario Hydro 1980-1984, during building of 12 CANDU units. Professor of Nuclear Engineering, UNB 1984-91. Chief Engineer, AECL 1991-99 during building of Wolsong and Qinshan projects. Senior Advisor marketing & sales, 1999-01, Director CANTEACH 2001 to 2007. Member IAEA-INSAG 1985-88. Served on several IAEA technical committees. Member Int'l Nuc. Energy Acad. (Chair 1998-00). Chair, Defence Science Advisory Board, 1997-03. Member, Ext. Advisory Panel, Gen IV. Adjunct Professor, UOIT. Member, Professional Engineers Ontario, Society of Sigma Xi. Sixteen refereed journal publications. Over 100 other conference papers and reports. Twelve postgraduate theses supervised.

CNS: Member since 1979 (Charter). Fellow since 1998. W.B. Lewis medal (CNA) 1990. CNS Conference chair 1982. Member, organizing committee and pro-tem council, 1979-80. President, 2006-2007.

ANS: Member since 1965, Fellow since 1988. Program Committee, Reactor Physics Division, Executive Committee of Reactor Safety Division, Board of Directors. Chaired several sessions at ANS meetings, chaired RPD benchmark problems committee. Currently Vic-Chair of Executive Committee, Environmental Sciences Division.