

CANADIAN NUCLEAR SOCIETY SASKATCHEWAN BRANCH

“A Nuclear Renaissance”

You are cordially invited to attend a ‘nuclear issues’ speaker series, sponsored by the Canadian Nuclear Society. In response to increasing demands on conventional energy reserves and concern over climate change, some people believe the nuclear industry is experiencing a nuclear renaissance. Gerald Grandey, president and CEO of Cameco Corporation will present his views on what this resurgence in demand for nuclear energy means for the local uranium mining industry and the people of Saskatchewan.

Location: Willows Golf and Country Club
382 Cartwright Street
Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

When: Wednesday, October 5, 2005

Time: 6:00 pm cocktails Tickets: $20.00
6:30 pm dinner

Tickets may be reserved by mail/fax or email prior to September 23, care of:
Janie Jewsbury tel 306-956-6525
janie_jewsbury@cameco.com fax 306-956-6444

The Canadian Nuclear Society:

- acts as a forum for the exchange of information relating to nuclear science and technology;
- fosters the development and beneficial utilization of nuclear science and technology for peaceful uses;
- encourages education in, and knowledge about, nuclear science and technology; and
- enhances the professional and technical capabilities of those involved in nuclear science and technology in the Canadian context.

Event sponsored by: Cameco Corporation and Golder and Associates.